Overview

This 6 days Southern Tanzania safari is designed for travellers who want a quieter, more wilderness-focused safari experience from Dar es Salaam. The itinerary combines Nyerere National Park and Mikumi National Park, giving guests a strong introduction to the Southern Tanzania safari circuit without needing a very long holiday. Nyerere offers expansive wilderness, river scenery, game drives, and optional boat safari experiences around the Rufiji River area, while Mikumi adds open savannah plains, baobab landscapes, and accessible wildlife viewing. This route is ideal for safari travellers who prefer fewer crowds, varied landscapes, and a practical start and finish through Dar es Salaam. Fidelity Safaris operates this private 6 days Southern Tanzania safari with an experienced guide, comfortable accommodation, and flexible planning according to travel dates, lodge preference, and group size.

Day 3 Nyerere River Experience and Wildlife Viewing

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Accommodation: Nyerere lodge or tented camp

Continue enjoying the Nyerere wilderness with a flexible day planned around wildlife conditions and guest preference. You may take another game drive, add a boat safari on the Rufiji River area, or arrange a guided walking safari where available and permitted. This day gives the itinerary a slower pace and allows more time for photography, birdwatching, and river-based scenery before your final overnight in the Nyerere area.

Day 4 Nyerere National Park to Mikumi National Park

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Accommodation: Mikumi lodge or tented camp

After breakfast, depart the Nyerere area and travel towards Mikumi National Park. The drive passes through rural southern Tanzania landscapes and gives a good sense of the region beyond the main safari roads. Arrive near Mikumi, check in at your lodge or camp, and relax. If time allows, your guide may arrange a short introductory game drive or scenic stop before dinner.

Day 6Mikumi to Dar es Salaam

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

After breakfast, begin the return journey to Dar es Salaam. Depending on your departure schedule, you may have time for a relaxed morning at the lodge before driving back. Arrive in Dar es Salaam for airport drop-off, hotel drop-off, or onward travel arrangements. This marks the end of your 6 days Southern Tanzania safari with Fidelity Safaris.

FAQs

What is included in this 6 days Southern Tanzania safari?

The package includes private safari transport, an English-speaking guide, accommodation, meals during the safari, park fees, drinking water during game drives, and the game drives listed in the itinerary. Optional activities can be added depending on the final quotation.

Which parks are included in this Southern Tanzania safari?

This itinerary includes Nyerere National Park and Mikumi National Park, with pickup and drop-off in Dar es Salaam.

Is this Southern Tanzania safari good for first-time visitors?

Yes. It is suitable for first-time visitors who arrive through Dar es Salaam and want a quieter alternative to the Northern Circuit. It is also excellent for repeat travellers who have already visited Serengeti, Ngorongoro, or Tarangire.

Can a boat safari be included in Nyerere National Park?

Yes. A boat safari around the Rufiji River area can be added where available and permitted. It is a popular way to enjoy river scenery, hippos, crocodiles, water birds, and sunset views.

What makes Mikumi useful in this itinerary?

Mikumi adds accessible southern Tanzania wildlife viewing with open plains, baobab scenery, and a practical route back toward Dar es Salaam. It helps balance the itinerary after the deeper wilderness experience in Nyerere.
